WYOMING LABOR FORCE TRENDS

EMPLOYMENT SECURITY COMMISSION OF WYOMING
RESEARCH & ANALYSIS SECTION

VOL. 17 NO. 9 SEPTEMBER 1980

NATIONAL UNEMPLOYMENT DIPS TO 7.5 PERCENT

The Nation's seasonally adjusted unemployment rate dipped to 7.5 percent in September, compared to 7.6 percent in August and 5.8 percent in September, 1979. The number of persons unemployed declined by nearly 200,000 over-the-month in September to 7.8 million. The number of layoffs increased but was still below the level registered in the May-July period. The median duration of joblessness, at 8.3 weeks, increased for the fourth month in a row. There was a decrease in the number of persons unemployed less than 5 weeks.

WYOMING UNEMPLOYMENT AT HALF THE NATIONAL LEVEL

In September the seasonally adjusted unemployment level, at 3.8 percent, was down from 4.1 percent in August and up from the 2.7 percent recorded in September 1979. The September unadjusted rate of 3.2 percent compares with the 3.1 percent recorded in September of 1975, during the national recession of that year. Wyoming tallied 7,768 unemployed in September, a seasonal decline from the 8,065 recorded in August but an almost-50-percent gain from the 5,321 in September 1979. In spite of this, Wyoming continued to have the lowest unemployment rate in the nation in August, for the third month in a row at 3.3 percent, seasonally unadjusted.

MINING AND CONSTRUCTION LEAD IN LABOR FORCE GAINS

The September 1980 Wyoming labor force is estimated at 242,687, almost unchanged from August and up 4 percent annually. The state's largest annual industrial employment gains of 5,300 and 3,700 were in mining and construction of 16 and 15 percent. Agricultural employment declined slightly by two percent. For further industrial detail refer to Table 3.

STATE COVERED WAGE EARNERS AVERAGE $15,300 A YEAR

Employer contributions data, recently compiled for the second quarter of 1980, indicated a statewide average weekly wage of $294, or almost $15,300 a year. This is for over 197,000 Wyoming workers covered by the expanded 1978 unemployment insurance law in the second three months of 1980. This quarterly wage is up 12.6 percent from the $261 average weekly wage recorded during the second quarter of 1979. The National Consumer Price Index was up 14.4 percent annually during the same time frame.

On an area basis covered workers in Sweetwater County averaged $363 a week, or almost $18,900 a year in wages. Following are Carbon, $355 a week, Campbell $352, Converse $350, and Natrona $324. Teton County had the lowest average weekly wage, $186.

BEST AVAILABLE COPY

The higher wages are located in those areas of the state where employment is concentrated in the mining and construction industries. On the other side of the coin, counties that have an agricultural or trade and services oriented economy tend to have the lowest weekly wages.

AREA LABOR FORCE AND UNEMPLOYMENT TRENDS

Natrona County, the Casper area, continued its trend of leading the state with a 2,996 annual labor force gain. Other noteworthy increases include Laramie County 1,627, Uinta 842, and Carbon 776. Annual percentage gains in the labor force indicate Uinta leads with a gain in excess of 15 percent. Lincoln, Natrona, and Carbon counties all had gains in the 7 percent range.

Carbon County had the state's lowest unemployment rate at 1.5 percent, followed by Uinta at 1.8 and Johnson at 2.0 percent. Platte had the highest at 6.4 percent. The national unadjusted jobless rate was 7.1 percent.

HOURS AND EARNINGS

The highest industrial wages reported in the state in September were in petroleum refining, with an average weekly wage of $530, or around $27,600 a year.
